

Parkview Hospital
Clinical Laboratory Scientist/Medical Technology Program
Expenses/Information Sheet

1. Tuition is: $3000 for the year.
 - a. 3 + 1: Pay tuition directly to your university. Some institutions have you pay us directly. In that case the tuition is $3000 for the year.
 - b. 4 + 1: $3000 for the year.
2. Plan to spend about $500 for books. You'll be given a list of books to buy using your choice of book vendor.
3. There are several apartments in the vicinity of the Parkview Regional Medical Center, and many more within 15 minutes of PRMC. Check out the website of the Apartment Association of Fort Wayne at <http://www.apartmentsfortwayne.com/>
4. Lab Coats are provided. You need to purchase royal blue scrubs. No jeans, open-toed shoes or canvas tennis shoes. No t-shirts with insignias. Dress professionally.
5. Hours:
M, TH, and F – 6:30AM – 3:00 PM
T and W – lecture 7 – 11:30AM – followed by bench work until 3:00PM.
6. Employment – Hours may be available as a Lab Tech Student. Students usually work in the evenings or on the weekends. Current pay is $10.45/hour. Shift and weekend differential applies.
7. Parkview is part of the CIMLE Match. All applicants must submit a form to the Match Service.
8. Applicants must send a copy of their December grades as soon as they receive them. If possible, preferably by December 31. You may send them by either e-mail (brian.goff@parkview.com) or FAX (260-458-5672).
9. Those accepted into the Program must meet the employment requirements for Parkview Health and have a pre-employment physical. This includes a urine sample for drugs of abuse.