

How To Get To The Central Lab
Address: 328 Ley Road, Fort Wayne, IN 46825

Fort Wayne can be easily reached by taking I-69 (North and South), US 30 and 24 (East and West) and US 33 and 27. The Central Lab is on the north side, and near I-69 and US 27. The star in the middle of the map is where the Central Lab is located.

There are 3 exits that you can take to get to the Central Lab off I-69. Those exits are numbers 109, 111, and 112. Lima Road and Northrop Street are also US 27 if you choose to come that way. The Central Lab is near the junction of I-69 and US 27/Lima Road.

If you turn off at Exit 109, go towards Fort Wayne, fade to the left lane and make the turn left onto St. Rd. 30, which is also Coliseum Blvd. The critical stoplight is the first one after you cross US27/Lima Road. Turn left onto Speedway and follow it around to the Central Lab. We're the first blue building on the right. Park in the parking lot in the front of the building.

If you use Exit 111, take US27 towards Fort Wayne. At the bottom of the hill there will be a stoplight, where you turn left (east). We're the first blue building after the 4 way stop sign at the top of the hill. Park your car in the parking lot in the front of the building.

If you use Exit 112, take Coldwater Road South. Turn right at the 4th stoplight (East Collins Road), where the KIA dealer is on the right, the Taco Bell is on the right but on the other side of the road, and a Rally's is on the left. When East Collins "T's" into a road (Speedway Drive) turn right and follow it around to the Central Lab. We're the first blue building on the right. Park your car in the parking lot in the front of the building.

If you miss East Collins Road – no problem; Just keep going straight until you come to Coliseum (shopping center on left, Border's Books diagonally across the intersection on your left, and the IHOP (International House of Pancakes) is on your right. Turn right onto Coliseum Blvd. You will go past Glenbrook Mall on your left. Go through the first stoplight, and turn right at the next stoplight where the Ford dealer and the Arby's are located. That's Speedway Drive; follow it around to the Central Lab. We're the first blue building on the right. Park your car in the parking lot in the front of the building.
